

Skylog introduces its new General Manager Boris BLAGOJEVIC-LEE

Frankfurt, 8th October 2018 – Skylog, a German subsidiary of ECS Group, hired its new General Manager Boris BLAGOJEVIC-LEE. For the record, Skylog is based in Frankfurt (FRA) and is designed as an exclusive business unit to serve IAG cargo, with well trained and experienced staff focused on the specific products of IAG.

Adrien THOMINET, CEO at ECS Group said that « The recruitment of Boris BLAGOJEVIC-LEE is an excellent opportunity to Skylog and to ECS because he knows very well all the aspects of our industry. Furthermore, he matches exactly to ECS recruitment's spirit: having talented people forward-looking. ».

Boris BLAGOJEVIC-LEE can be defined as a self-made man. He joined the industry on the handling side at Frankfurt-Hahn Airport before being responsible for Billing, Cargospot Administration, Traffic Rights and later on for sales in the Americas at ACG Air Cargo Germany. Then he took a commercial role within European Regions at Qatar Airways. Just before joining ECS Group as General Manager of Skylog, he was in the position of Director Global Sales of Leisure Cargo.
