

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA - CHARTER OF PERSONAL RIGHTS

Within the limits and conditions set by the current standard, it is possible to have access to your personal data:

1- ACCESS TO YOUR DATA

Within the limits and conditions set by the current standard, it is possible to have one's personal data at one's disposal.

2- RIGHT TO RECTIFICATION (Art 16 GDPR)

Any request for correction will require proof, which may be used to certify the legitimacy of the request.

You have the right to obtain from the data controller, as soon as possible, the rectification of personal data concerning you when they are inaccurate or incomplete.

We reserve the right to refuse a correction that is contrary to regulations or manifestly unlawful.

3- RIGHT TO ERASURE (Art 17 GDPR)

The erasure of data and the exercise of the data subject's right to oblivion may only take place if :

- The consent on which the processing operation was based has been withdrawn, where consent is the legal basis for the processing operation in question,
- Personal data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed,
- The data subject has objected to the processing of his data and there is no legitimate and compelling reason to continue processing them,
- Personal data has been processed illegally,
- Personal data must be deleted to comply with a legal obligation under EU law or any national law to which Quito or one of its subsidiaries is subject.
- Personal data has been collected in the context of the direct offer of information society services to children.

4- RIGHT TO OBJECT (Art 21 GDPR)

The data subject has the right at any time to object to the processing of his or her personal data, for reasons related to his or her situation. We reserve the right to demonstrate that there is a legitimate and compelling reason pursued by the data controller or a third party.

Where data is processed for canvassing purposes, the data subject may object to the processing of his personal data at any time.

1- RIGHT TO DATA PORTABILITY (Art 20 GDPR)

The data subject may at any time request to receive his or her personal data in a structured and commonly used machine-readable format. The data controller shall ensure that the exercise of the right to transfer the data to another controller is facilitated.

2- RIGHT TO RESTRICTION OF PROCESSING (Art 18 GDPR)

The data subject may request a limitation on the processing of the personal data we use about him or her when :

- The accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject, for a period allowing the controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data,
- He/she opposes the deletion of data when the processing is illegal,
- We no longer need the personal data for the processing, but they are still necessary for the data subject to establish, exercise or defend legal claims,
- He/she objected to the processing of the data during the audit on the question of whether the legitimate reasons invoked by Quito or one of its subsidiaries outweighed his/her own.

3- WITHDRAW YOUR CONSENT

Where the processing is based on the consent of the data subject, it may be withdrawn at any time. Withdrawal of consent shall not undermine the lawfulness of the processing operation based on consent before the withdrawal of consent.

4- RIGHT TO INFORMATION

The data subject must be able to have access to all the information on the processing of his/her personal data as provided for in Articles 12, 13 and 14 of the European Data Protection Regulation. To this end, we invite the data subject to submit a request following the procedure described.

The rights covered by this Charter are exercised concerning Quito by written application accompanied by proof of identity to the DPO of Quito: By post: DPO 92 avenue de Wagram, 75017 Paris. By e-mail: dpo@ecsgroup.aero

Following the European Regulation, We will respond within one month and We will notify each recipient to whom the personal data have been communicated of any rectification or deletion of personal data, or any limitation of the processing carried out unless such communication proves impossible or requires a disproportionate effort. We reserve the right, in case of complexity of the implementation of the request, to respond within two months.

No fees will be charged for requests for the above-mentioned fees. However, following the regulations, Quito reserves the right to take legal action against the person concerned in the event of manifestly unfounded or excessive claims, in particular, due to their repetitive nature.

The person concerned may file a complaint with the supervisory authority (in France, the CNIL),
